Dear Business Owner

WHAT TO DO AFTER REGISTERING A COMPANY
KORDI CRAFT CREATION (PTY) LTD
(2026/562177/07)

Congratulations on registering your company. The Companies and Intellectual Property Commission (CIPC) wishes you all the best in your business endeavours.

Registering your company is only the first step in managing it. Throughout its life span, a company is required to maintain its information and legal status with the CIPC. Failure to do so may have serious consequences for your company and your business activities, as it may result in deregistration, investigation, administrative fine or prosecution. You may also wish to register intellectual property rights e.g Trade Mark, Patents and Designs or Copyright within the name of your company. For more information visit https://iponline.cipc.co.za/. It is important to note that registering your company does not automatically result in a registration of a Trade Mark - this is a separate legal process.

The Companies Act, 2008 places compliance obligations on all registered companies throughout its life cycle, which inter alia includes:-

- Filing of Annual Returns (annual renewal with CIPC and not tax return with SARS) together with:-
  - Annual Financial Statements (AFS via iXBRL - for more information refer to the dedicated page on www.cipc.co.za) or Financial Accountability Supplement (FAS); and
  - Compliance Checklists information; AND
- Filing changes to the company information e.g. directorship, address, financial year end or name change.

You are also required to submit the company's Beneficial Ownership information within 10 business days of registration with the CIPC. Thereafter, you will have to update the Beneficial Ownership information as and when it changes or when you file Annual Returns for your company.

It is important that you ensure that the CIPC always has the latest contact details for the directors or the authorised representative so that important information relating to Annual Returns, directorship changes and pending deregistrations can be transmitted efficiently and effectively to your company.

To assist you in understanding these and other obligations, CIPC provides a free online course - www.cipc.co.za / Learn-i-Biz.
